How well do you know literary cats?

Answers

1. What is this famous literary cat's name?
You'll meet him in children's books.

Slinky Malinky (from the Hairy Maclary books)

2. What does Dr Johnson's cat Hodge have beside him in his statue?
A. A ball of wool
B. Oyster shells
C. A writing desk

3. What unusual feature are many cats at Ernest Hemingway's Key West home known for?
A. Extra toes — Polydactyl
B. Folded ears — Scottish Fold
C. Little or no fur — Sphynx

4. Mark Twain loved cats. Two of these stories are true. Which one is false?
A. When on holiday, he rented kittens to keep him company.
B. He had special rules for billiards for when a cat slept on the table or tucked into a pocket.
C. His favourite cat was a pure white cat named Bambino.

Bambino was a black cat.

Great Writers & the Cats Who Owned Them explores the special bond between renowned writers and their feline companions. A must-read for cat lovers and literary enthusiasts alike!

http://tiny.cc/literarycats