

An Afternoon with Jane Austen

Featuring Adrian Lukis and Susannah Fullerton

This year JASA turns 30 and you are invited to a special event to celebrate. Be entertained by Adrian Lukis, the actor who so memorably played Mr Wickham in the BBC 1995 Pride and Prejudice. Adrian has appeared in many well-known TV series and films – Chandler & Co, Peak Practice, The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes, Grantchester, Silent Witness, Death in Paradise and Toast of London, to name just a few.

Adrian will act out scenes from Jane Austen's novels with Susannah Fullerton (who has several years dramatic training) in a performance lasting about 60 minutes. This will be followed by a cream tea with tea and coffee, and the chance to chat with Adrian and possibly be photographed with him.

Bookings are essential for this very special performance.
